

Like many other historians, I cringe when I hear people saying,
"This is not who we are."
Because historically, it is who we are.
Again and again.

I think it's better to say, "This is not who I want us to be."

And then ask yourself what you can do to change that.

Dr. Jacqueline Antonovich

War Is Peace, Part II

Vincent Valdez

“Like many other historians, I cringe when I hear people saying, ‘This is not who we are.’ Because historically, it is who we are. Again and again.

“I think it’s better to say, ‘This is not who I want us to be.’ And then ask yourself what you can do to change that.”

— Dr. Jacqueline Antonovich

